The Queen - Built opposite Chester station originally to serve first-class rail passengers, this 4-star hotel has an illustrious past. This magnificent brick and stucco Italianate building was said to be the first skyscraper of its time. Since opening in 1860, it's hosted guests such as Charles Dickens.

Where is the walk? Tel Y Fan, with lunch in Conwy.

What is the plan? Arrive Friday. Dinner and drinks out in Chester (own choice). Breakfast, transport to the walk. About 10-12km walk, lunch. Six nations match (ENG vs IRE at 4.45), TV arranged. Gala dinner in the evening. Out in Chester after (if desired). Leave on Sunday after breakfast at your own leisure.

What is the cost?
Twin Room £239pp
Single Room £349pp

Why book on Hi-Tiddle? It's a great weekend with fellow tablers, and a chance to meet others from Area45. It's a fantastic location and brilliant walk offering fantastic views. A 10-minute walk to the busy city centre. It offers a massive list of places to go: The Rows, ruins of the largest Roman amphitheatre in Britain. The night life atmosphere ranges from cosy and relaxed to vibrant and energetic. There are cocktail bars, wine bars, clubs galore and live music.

Still not sure? Ask someone who has been on Hi-Tiddle before, and you should then be convinced.

The website will have more information in time. Any question please feel free to contact: Huw Lansdowne.
